A Note From Bonnie Weber

Dear Epiphany People of God at St. John's Lutheran Church – rural Gilman.

What a mild January for Wisconsin we are experiencing this year! We have snow, but not the bone-chilling below zero temps that we normally do. I, for one, do not miss THAT at all. Even though I don't have to be out in it, the house isn't so cold and snappy either.

What a Christmas/New Year's I spent this past month. Christmas was uneventful, but the day after New Year's, 8 people in our group all came down with covid! All were uncontagious by the time we left, but that horrible tiredness was something else. Anyway, I've been home for just over 2 weeks and am still suffering from it. My breathing is difficult at times and still a lack of pep. Hopefully, all will straighten out before long.

From Sundays and Seasons: "Who are the blessed ones of God? For Micah, they are those who do justice, love kindness and walk humbly with God. For Paul, they are the ones who find wisdom in the weakness of the cross. For Jesus they are the poor, the meek, the merciful, the pure in heart, the peacemakers, those who mourn, and those who hunger for righteousness. In baptism we find our blessed identity and calling in this countercultural way of living and serving."

That is quite a thoughtful reading for us to mull over in our minds. All those whom Jesus called "blessed", are you and me! It isn't someone living way off from us that we could never identify with. It's you! It's me! It was the called disciples in Jesus' day. They weren't fancy, upper crust society. They were fishermen, workers of the soil, worked with their hands. They were willing to follow Jesus, change direction and with Him teaching, they could be and do whatever He wanted them to do.

We can do the same thing! Through prayer and listening, we can follow in the steps of the Master! He will be our guide.

Thanks be to God for all the love and grace shown to us and for the strength of the Holy Spirit!

Peace to you all.
